Overseas Student Application for Enrolment Narre Warren South Campus

Please read the College Overseas Student Handbook carefully before submitting this application form.

This application form must be filled in completely, signed and submitted with the following:

- A Pastoral Letter of Recommendation
- A Photocopy (not original) of Birth Certificate
- A Photocopy (not original) of the most recent report from student's current school (where applicable)
- A Photocopy of the student's passport and visa if available
- Two (2) passport-size photographs of the student with their full name on the back on the photograph
- AEAS test results if available *
- Application Fee ($300)

Each of these items must be sent for an application to be considered.

*Upon acceptance, the student will be required to undertake the AEAS tests (www.aeas.com.au) at their own expense prior to admission. This is to ensure that entry takes place at the optimum time and year level. Alternatively, the student can undertake the tests in their country of origin and submit the results with their application.

An interview with the parents and student will be arranged when a place becomes available and is required before acceptance.
